Re: Hurricane Updates Wednesday Morning

Dear Residents:

We were in contact with our gate security company at 5 am this morning, as previously arranged, and as the weather per the news shows indicates, the storm surge is actually starting at this point. Due to the current weather and because it is still dark, we believe that it would be more appropriate to keep the gates open, and not engage the services of the guards at this time.

We will be speaking to our security company again at 9:30 AM, with the goal of making a decision to re-open the security at both gates at 10 AM. We should have a much better idea at that point as to whether storm surge will be affecting the Fort Hamer Road gate. .

Later today, Main Gate will be back to close the Creole Court emergency gate, and we will be requesting repair of the exit gate at old Tampa Road.

Steven Higbee will be undergoing a personal procedure today, and the Community Center office will be closed. We will be reopening the office tomorrow, and staffing it with board members during the regularly scheduled office times of 1-3 pm.

Stay safe as we ride out the remainder of this storm.
